

Legal Planning for the Special Needs Family

What can you do today to prepare for your child's transition to adulthood? This seminar will guide you through the essentials of special needs planning, including decision-making considerations, special needs trusts, and other tools to support a comprehensive plan.

Jennifer Sabourin is a special needs planning attorney and the parent of a child with special needs. The firm, Clancy & Associates, guides families through the legal system while supporting families in planning for their child's future.
